So you're a Logistician. Now what?

The Logistician is a very reliable personality type, often priding themselves on – and deriving their self-respect from – their practicality and integrity. But their strong work ethic and sense of duty means they too often find themselves shouldering responsibilities that should rightly fall onto others.

Does this sound familiar? Good news: our premium Logistician Guides & Tests will help you understand your strengths – and struggles – on a whole new level. Drawing on more than a decade of research, they'll help you explore what it means to be a Logistician so that you can understand every area of your life and stop stress from preventing success.
